

REVIVAL OF BEN HUR

MRS. CORAL HARRISON SLOAN TELLS OF PLANS FOR PRODUCTION

Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan, who was so badly injured in the unfortunate auto accident that took place the night before the great spectacular performance of Ben Hur was to have been given by her pupils and others, is considerably recovered and is already attending to some of her work, although obliged to be seated most of the time.

In addition to the work of building up again the work of her school so sadly interrupted by the accident that not only struck down herself, but also seriously injured Dorothy Bonnell, the star student in the school and the star character in the Ben Hur presentation, Mrs. Sloan is gradually piecing together again the Ben Hur work. Friends of Mrs. Sloan will be glad to hear of this coming revival of the Ben Hur production as the accident and its enforced idleness have been a source of great financial loss to her.

Mrs. Sloan said today: "I desire to express to the members of the Shakespeare club and the other ladies who interested themselves in the benefit by Dorothy Bonnell my most heartfelt thanks and deepest gratitude for the compliment paid to the life and character of this little girl. I have always felt it a very high honor to have Dorothy in my school. She comes of a very fine family."

"Mrs. Bonnell is a woman of education and refinement. Mr. Bonnell is a successful business man, a professional house decorator and expert in interior work, his production in that respect being among the best in Los Angeles. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bonnell are connected with some of the most successful and prominent business people of the middle west. Charles Flower is a cousin of Mr. Bonnell."

"Dorothy is an only daughter, there being only one other child in the family, a boy of 14, who is a very fine little fellow and who has been self-supporting for more than a year."

"Dorothy elected to work her way through the course of training given in my school, rather than to pay cash, purely from choice, because she believed an education obtained in this way would prove of greater benefit to her in the long run. Every day she has been in my house she has been a benediction to me and the other students of the school, and it is with deep regret that we accept the fact that she will no longer live in Glendale. Those most nearly concerned have advised entire cessation from study, change of scene and travel for some time to come."

"Owing to this fact Miss Dorothy Brown of Louise street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. Price Brown, has been selected to take the star part in the coming production of Ben Hur, which will be given in the Palace-Grand theater the first week in July. Those who have seen little Dorothy Brown in public performance know that no one could rival her in beauty or in grace and that she will leave nothing to be desired in her interpretation of the role assigned to her."

"One final word. There is an old Persian proverb that says: 'We love most those for whom we sacrifice most.' Little Dorothy came to me two years ago as absolutely raw material. Every hour of my time during that period that should have been devoted to rest was put in in training her. I have given my very life to making an artist of Dorothy and I shall miss her sweet presence in my home more than anyone else in Glendale could possibly dream of doing."

JUDGE MILLER TOOK IN $30

Judge Miller tried four cases Friday. The first called was the People vs. Joe Garcia. Garcia was arrested for driving a mule with a sore shoulder, in street grading work in Burbank. Garcia was given a suspended sentence of 60 days in jail, and J. Mullarkey, the foreman of the work, was fined $20. The next called was the People of the State of California vs. R. A. Walton of Montrose, who had engaged in a fistie encounter with W. L. Benjamin. Walton was fined $10. Two civil cases were also tried. Judge Miller's court has turned in over $693 in fees during last month.

GLENDAL GIRLS WIN

The game of indoor ball played by the Glendale and Tropico girls on the Tropico playgrounds Thursday resulted in a victory for Glendale, the score being 15 to 14. The return game will be played on the grounds of the Third street school, Glendale, Thursday.

MOTHERS IN COUNCIL

GLENDAL SENDS DELEGATION TO FIFTH ANNUAL CONVENTION IN LOS ANGELES

Glendale was well represented at the California Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations Thursday and Friday, April 27-28, in Blanchard hall, Los Angeles. Some of those present were Mrs. Minnette Sherman, Mrs. James Begg, Mrs. R. A. Puffer, Mrs. Ella Richardson and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson gave the report for all the Glendale schools, showing the progressive work that has been and is being done in those institutions. This carefully considered address was received with much interest and was the means of calling attention to Glendale and its work. The city was also prominently to the front when the prizes were awarded, several coming this way. Mrs. Galentine's address on "Mothercraft" was an interesting feature as was also the address on "County Social Service" by Mrs. N. R. Norton.

In the reports given by the presidents of federations a great deal of interesting matter was communicated. These reports showed great activity in all the departments of school life in which the Parent-Teacher associations are interested. In particular great stress was laid on the work done in the summer playgrounds. The necessity for securing supervision of summer playgrounds was shown and complete details given of the working of those institutions during the past summer.

The excellent work done in the three summer playgrounds of Glendale was detailed. In many cases it was shown that the work had been done by city officials. In others the chambers of commerce had taken a hand; in others subscriptions were raised by house to house call. In every instance, however, the playgrounds were secured.

No one can overestimate the value of the work done in those playgrounds. Mrs. Ella Richardson gave details of some of the benefits that accrued from the work on the Pacific avenue summer school playground in Glendale last summer. In daily attendance at the playground were eighteen families of children, the mothers of which were compelled to be out working to help in securing the family living. The little ones were cared for; their faces were washed, they were fed and many times clothed and put to sleep on the grounds.

The youngest member in attendance was three years. Sometimes a baby in a buggy would be brought and would be cared for by older children. In the warm mornings when the little ones played with blocks and toys in the shady sand piles the older ones sat around sewing, tatting, crocheting and listening to the supervisor reading a book. They would afterward talk about what had been read. Guessing games were in great favor, especially when sides were chosen.

It would be impossible to overestimate the value of all this work. There is much poverty that the average individual knows nothing about. Many people are living from hand to mouth. Their wages are so small that they save little or nothing and often when they have saved a few dollars the sum is wiped out by a spell of being out of work or by sickness. Only by being touch with these people can these things be known, for the deserving are rarely beggars and seldom seek charity. It is the professional charity seeker who gets the offerings of the charitable. The convention was deeply interested in the details of this work and many valuable hints for the management of the summer playgrounds were given.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS CONVENT

On Friday evening the officers and teachers of the Presbyterian Sunday school met with the pastor and wife, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds, at the Manse, 421 Cedar, for a social evening. The Sunday school has an enrollment of over 350 with about thirty officers and teachers. Mr. C. C. Widney, the newly appointed superintendent, had charge of the gathering. There was a general discussion of Sunday school problems and many helpful suggestions were made. It was decided that such monthly meetings were necessary for the best interests of the school and the last Friday of each month was the time chosen. After refreshments were served, the meeting was closed by prayer.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair and warmer tonight and Sunday; northwest winds.

IRISH REBELS NUMBER MORE THAN 2000

INSURRECTIONISTS SURROUNDED IN THE HEART OF DUBLIN—REPORT OF SURRENDER NOT CONFIRMED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, April 29.—The numbers of the rebels in Dublin City are estimated at from 2000 to 10,000. It is believed that the former number is more nearly correct. They are now surrounded in the heart of Dublin, where they have fortified themselves in various houses and public buildings. Numerous buildings have been set on fire. The report that the rebels had surrendered is not confirmed. The cabinet was unexpectedly summoned today, causing sensational rumors. It is believed that the subject under consideration was conscription.

BERLIN EXCITED OVER WILSON'S MESSAGE

TEUTONS THINK PRESIDENT'S UNARMED MERCHANTMEN DECLARATION A BACKING-UP OF BRITAIN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
BERLIN, April 29.—Publication of President Wilson's recent ultimatum to the kaiser on the subject of the sinking of unarmed merchantmen has greatly aroused anti-American sentiment in this city. The flurry of excitement is noticeable everywhere. The cafes are full of excited groups discussing this latest phase of the controversy between the United States and Germany. Everywhere one hears comment to the effect that this last message substantiates the charge so frequently made that the United States is giving its utmost aid to England.

GERMANS RENEW ATTACK ON VERDUN

TEUTONS SEND FORWARD MORE MEN TO THE SLAUGHTER IN ORDER TO COVER WESTERN ASSAULT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, April 29.—The Germans renewed their desperate assaults on the region around Verdun this morning. The attacks were made on both sides of the Meuse. They were repulsed with much slaughter. Assaults on Hill 304 and on the positions at Thiaucourt were easily repulsed and though the Germans sent forward more and more men to the slaughter they did not gain an inch. It is believed by experts here that this latest movement is meant to cover a grand assault on the combined French and British lines, which will be made in conjunction with an air and sea attack.

FLOWER GIVING DAY

GLENDAL GARDEN SOCIETY STARTS FOR LOS ANGELES WITH FLOWERS FOR POOR

As announced previously Flower Giving day was set for April 29 by the officials of the Glendale Garden society. This is another of the practical pieces of work this enterprising organization has engineered under the direction of its able president, Mrs. Nanno Woods. The Free Flower show has given Glendale a great deal of outside advertising and the free distribution of flowers in Los Angeles will undoubtedly attract a great deal of attention to this city. This is a kind of practical work that is calculated to benefit Glendale to a very considerable extent. In these modern days a city that does not advertise itself and get all the publicity it can is likely to be left behind in the march of civilization.

Precisely at 10 a. m. Saturday morning eight automobiles filled with bunches of flowers from the gardens of Glendale started for the city. Each auto contained about 250 bunches of flowers—in all about 2000 bunches. These consisted of common garden flowers—long-stemmed geraniums, cosmos, petunias, gypsophylla, mignonette, marigolds, nasturtiums, stocks, sweet peas and some wild flowers such as lupines and sunflowers.

Harry P. Coker of the Valley Supply company led the way in his automobile. Mrs. Woods and others followed. Prof. Harry L. Howe, Mrs. Howe, Mrs. Louise Blackman, Miss Emily Blackman and little Miss Edith Adele Howe occupied Mr. Howe's auto amidst a veritable bower of flowers.

Olin Spencer of the bookstore, 324 S. Brand, drove another auto. Mr. Ezra Parker brought up the rear. Mrs. Rosie Cook, in an auto driven by Chauffeur Morgan brought a bewildering mass of brilliantly colored flowers to gratify the tired workers of the city. Others who rode in the different autos were: Mrs. Ella Richardson, who brought her auto full of exquisite bouquets; Mrs. W. R. Phelan, Mrs. D. T. Scott, Mrs. Fred Murray, Mrs. H. C. Ackley, Mrs. Nanno Woods, Mrs. Frank Hester and Mrs. Calvin Whiting. Mr. M. B. Hartmann was active in assisting in the arrangements and formed a valuable adjunct to the party.

This attractive parade drove off to the city at the hour named in the schedule and formed a most picturesque representation of Glendale and its flowers. About 10:45 a. m. the company reached the plaza in Los Angeles and was the center of attraction to a large crowd of the inhabitants of that quarter, many of whom have little opportunity to see flowers. The bouquets were eagerly sought and the name of Glendale and its Garden society were uttered with many benedictions.

SINGLE TAX MEETING

At the home of Mrs. Lydia Elliott, 1453 Oak street, Friday evening the house was filled with about an equal number of men and women gathered to discuss the land question and its relation to making a living. Mr. J. W. Durham spoke first, giving the Bible teachings on the subject: "The land is mine, saith the Lord. It shall not be sold forever."

Mrs. Lona Ingham Robinson spoke on "Mine, Thine and Ours," referring to the vast fund of land values created by all of us that should be called in for it is ours and should be taxed into the public treasury by a tax on land values alone, exempting everything else.

Mrs. Durham presided. Single tax petitions were signed. Messrs. Pierce Christian, Rhallsback, Liebermitt and others united in the animated discussion that followed.

The next two meetings on this subject will be held May 8 at 205 N. Maryland with Miss Edith Tyler and May 18, 1444 W. First street, with Mrs. Chas. Barton. Both at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited.

CONTEST FOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Frank Bridgeford of Eagle Rock and Jos. Maier of Glendale, both students of Glendale Union high school, are participating in debates at Occidental college today. Two 2-year scholarships are to be given by Occidental to the winners. The debates are held at 10 a. m., 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. The question has to do with the Monroe doctrine and at 9 this morning the contestants, drew lots for sides. At 2 they debate on the opposite side and in the final contest this evening there will be a new question, but covering the same field.

OUTLINES PROGRESS

COUNTY ENGINEER SUBMITS APPROXIMATE DIVISION OF PROPOSED BOND ISSUE

Los Angeles, Cal., April 22, 1916. Los Angeles County Flood Control Association:

I have been asked to give you an outline of the progress in the preparation of plans for the general flood control of the Los Angeles county district, and wish to report:

The county ordinance which finally gave this department help for this work was enacted March 13, 1916; then, because of the necessity of selecting a class of skilled assistants familiar with the kind of work now in progress, two or three weeks unavoidably elapsed before we could outfit ourselves properly. At present eight draftsmen are employed in the office and two surveying parties in the field.

The general undertaking of the department is the preparation of a comprehensive and general flood control plan of the district, and of such character and merit as it is hoped will meet the approval of your board of supervisors, and with such recommendations that an immediate expenditure of $3,600,000 will afford a controlling agent for most floods.

Now in order to intelligently and comprehensively decide how the above named amount of money, and which has already been approximately apportioned to the different localities, can be expended in such a manner as to be in harmony with the great general plan, it must be apparent that it was necessary to first prepare the larger plan.

The following is the outline of present progress of the work in the different localities of the district, beginning with the lower end of the county:

House resolution No. 7566 (Stephens bill) proposing an appropriation by congress of nearly one million dollars to help defray the expense of diverting the rivers from the harbor, also makes it incumbent upon Los Angeles county and other interests to first furnish for this work free right of way; secondly guarantee as to responsibility for damages of every kind which may arise from the diversion of the rivers, and third, a guarantee for the annual maintenance of this diversion, including both dike and channel.

Under these conditions of the pending bill in which we are required to furnish the right of way, no detailed surveys have been made by the U. S. government, and it has become necessary for me to do the field work of not only determining upon the ground the proposed location of the dike, and the location of the proposed channel from the end of the dike to Alamitos bay, but it is also necessary to survey another or alternate route of diversion, which was recommended for investigation by the late United States Engineer Officer of this District, Major R. R. Raymond.

When the surveys of these two routes have been completed, mapped and the cost of construction work estimated, they will then be submitted to the war department for its selection of route. The field surveys of these two routes will be completed in about ten days more, after which the estimate of the costs, construction, damage to land owners, etc., must be taken up and compiled. I have already said that no actual surveys have been previously made by the county for the proposed dike or diversion routes.

Gardena District

In the Gardena district another surveying party will have completed surveys in about two weeks for a flood control channel extending from a point south of Inglewood by way of Gardena, Moneta and Nigger Slough to the ocean.

Ballona Valley

To the west of the city of Los Angeles in Ballona valley the making of plans and estimates are in progress for the carrying off of the storm water arising in the city of Los Angeles from the La Brea storm drain, along with the other proposed storm drains, namely: Jefferson avenue, Meonard avenue and Arroyo de la Sacatella. Co-operation from both the cities of Los Angeles and Venice has been promised in the adoption of a mutual plan between these cities and Los Angeles county.

Verdugo and Sycamore Canyons

Plans and estimates for flood control of these two localities are progressing satisfactorily and in conjunction with local authorities.

San Fernando Valley

Plans for flood control in the towns of San Fernando, Van Nuys and Owensmouth, as well as from the mouth of the Tujunga canyon (Continued on Page 2)

PUBLIC SERVICE HOUSEKEEPERS

Among recent developments of civic paternalism is the institution of public housekeeper. The idea has been entertained for several years by Horace S. Hollingsworth, secretary of the Associated charities of Des Moines, Iowa. He has always maintained that a visiting housekeeper is one of the great needs of the city's charitable work. Reports from the Chicago juvenile court and its associated charities show that no line of effort in charitable undertakings has brought more satisfactory returns for the outlay.

The duties of this new official will be to become acquainted with the families of working people, ascertain the conditions under which they live and manage their household affairs. She will instruct them in methods that will result in better methods in the household and a better example to the children.

On of the things most lacking in the households of a large section of the people is efficiency. There is often very little money to manage but the management is often very bad and inefficient. It is expected that the new public service housekeeper will show the wife and the husband too how to make the family budget go farther and how to get the most from the family larder.

It is recognized by all household economists that the prevention of waste and the utilization of what is often thrown away are among the most serious problems in the households of the poor. Thrift is one of the features of the households of the working people in the big cities that is usually conspicuous by its absence. It has been said that the American working man's wife throws out of the door as much good food as would keep the average French peasant's family in comfort. There is some truth in the saying and it is supposed to be the work of the new civic housekeeper to show the extravagant housekeepers of the poor how to utilize the odds and ends of housekeeping.

While there will doubtless be an outcry on the part of many to the effect that this is paternalism and socialism there will equally likely be others who will welcome the assistance thus offered them and it will be interesting to watch the outcome of the experiment in Des Moines, which has always been an enterprising center and in this has taken a step in advance of many of the cities of the middle west. It is stated that the Des Moines people are progressive enough to welcome this idea as a profitable and wise innovation. Taking the experiment in that spirit they are likely to make it a success.

WAR MOVES IN EUROPE

It is not difficult to appraise the ultimate effect of the Teuton submarine warfare on the war. The object of the submarine warfare from the beginning has been to paralyze the British commercial trade and to prevent neutrals from bringing supplies to that country. To that end the Germans have been sinking when and where they could, merchantmen of all nations, belligerent or neutral, armed or unarmed. With all the unusual character of the campaign thus waged the Germans have really produced little or no effect on British shipping.

British losses of merchant ships are put at 410, French losses are stated at 53, Russian 35, Italian 27, Belgian 10 and Japanese 3. In addition 237 British trawlers were destroyed. Norway has had 81 vessels sunk, Sweden 40, Denmark 28, Holland 24 and the United States 7.

This shows that the British losses amount to 4 per cent of the total number in service and 6 per cent of the tonnage. These losses are too insignificant to make any permanent effect on British business. Shipbuilding has been steadily pushed throughout the war and in fact the aggregate of ships owned by the allies is greater now than when the war began.

At this rate the submarine campaign can have little other effect than to inflict temporary financial loss on the allies while, as it is impossible that the war can continue much more than a year longer, the effect on the allies' shipping will be nothing at all. Meantime the submarine campaign has greatly exasperated neutral nations like the United States, Norway, Sweden and Denmark. The smaller nations are by no means so able to stand the losses inflicted on their merchant marine as are Great Britain and France and the United States. They are daily becoming more angry at the German method of warfare and if headed by the United States would gladly follow its lead in any move to protect neutral shipping.

All Europe is awaiting with interest the outcome of the practical ultimatum sent by President Wilson to the kaiser. It is believed that Germany will back down; yet even at this late hour come reports of the sinking of three neutral vessels by German submarines.

Great events are about to take place on the western front where Germany is preparing for a grand assault on the British lines. Ammunition is being stacked up in enormous piles and there has been a considerable shifting of Teutonic troops from the Verdun section to the lines in Flanders under cover of a tremendous cannonade of the French lines at Dead Man's hill, Avocourt and other points.

In Ireland a strict censorship prevents the full truth from becoming known, but there is every reason to believe that it is much worse than is acknowledged by the British authorities. It is doubtful if the buildings in Dublin seized by the insurrectionists have been retaken and there is a considerable movement throughout the island that augurs badly for immediate pacification.

Recent accounts of the gold discovery at Goldstone, Cal., tell of ore valued at $40,000 a ton. It is safe to say that there is not very much of that "picture rock" going; otherwise it would be a simple thing to make a fair-sized fortune with a couple of sticks of dynamite. Gold is usually the most difficult thing to find in quantities and its production demands the hardest of work.

OUTLINES PROGRESS

down to the Los Angeles river near Lankershim are in progress.
Dam in Arroyo Seco at Devil's Gate
A design for a concrete dam 125 feet high of both gravity and arch type is being made for this reservoir site.

Los Angeles River from City of Los Angeles to Dominguez River
It was only early this week that we finished remapping the new channel of the Los Angeles river, that is, the channel made by the recent storm, between the city and the proposed Dominguez dike. During the coming week or ten days a definite selection for an official channel in this locality will be determined.

Rio Hondo or Old San Gabriel River Between El Monte and County Farm

A definite location for the official channel between these two points, a distance of about 12½ miles, is now practically determined upon, and a good deal of encouragement is offered to us in the way of free right of way for this channel.

East River Between Bassett and Belleflower

Between Bassett and Belleflower by way of the East river the location of the official channel is practically determined, an estimate and description of the route being worked up. From the mouth of the San Gabriel canyon southward a final plan for the conveying of the waters over this great cone down to their point of division north of El Monte is as yet not entirely determined, but we hope to reach a final decision within the next fortnight.

San Dimas, Big and Little Dalton Washes

A general plan for the controlling by combining and conveying of the waters to the San Gabriel river has been practically decided upon.

Pomona, Claremont and Lordsburg
As yet these very badly injured and menaced districts have not had the benefit of much detailed study, but the organization of the department work is now such that very shortly we can go carefully into the details of the needs of these three cities, where we have been promised very hearty co-operation when we begin this work.

Santa Clara River
Only the preliminary investigation of the needs in this section are yet available.

I do not believe that the people generally appreciate the magnitude and scope of the work that this department is now undertaking to do rapidly and in a very short time. Some time will be required to get these plans and estimates in proper shape for you.

The general outline of the protective measures recommended in the report of the board of engineers of flood control is being followed. The outline or plans given in this report are only general in scope and not of sufficient detail to meet the requirements of the legislative act under which we are working. This is true of the general field covered by that report with the exception of the plans of San Fernando valley, the division under Mr. Lippincott, these plans being complete.

In compliance with a resolution passed by your board of supervisors for the submission of a preliminary estimate and equitable apportionment among the local needs of a proposed bond issue of $3,600,000, the following approximate division of the amount was submitted.

Right of way for Dominguez dam and diversion channel as outlined and required by the U. S. army engineers (harbor protection) .....	$755,000
Check dams and retardation works, to be fairly distributed among the localities adapted thereto .....	$500,000
Los Angeles river and Big and Little Tujunga washes from their junction through the city of Los Angeles, and thence to the proposed diversion channel to Alamitos Bay .....	$500,000
West Hollywood district in the city of Los Angeles .....	$50,000
Chatsworth and Owensmouth district, mainly in the city of Los Angeles .....	$50,000
Verdugo and Sycamore channels for the protection of Glendale, Tropic and parts of Los Angeles adjacent thereto .....	$100,000
Arroyo Seco dam in the city of Pasadena (conservation for Pasadena and flood control for Los Angeles) .....	$150,000
Ballona creek, including the disposition of accelerated drainage of the city of Los Angeles and the protection of Venice, Sawtelle and adjacent localities .....	$150,000
Pacoima wash, including a portion of the city of Los Angeles, and for the protection of Van Nuys and vicinity .....	$60,000
Nigger Slough district, comprising Hawthorne, Lenox, Gardena, (City of Los Angeles) and Nigger Slough proper through to Dominguez creek .....	$75,000

San Gabriel, including Rio Hondo via Montebello and County Farm, and New River via Rivera

JOSEPH'S BONDAGE

The dramatic cantata, "Joseph's Bondage" by Chadwick, will be given Monday evening, May 8, at the Palace-Grand by a large number of the singers of Glendale, the Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church some weeks ago arranging with Mr. George L. Howes for the production of this splendid musical and dramatic work. It is to be given beautifully costumed and with full dramatic action. In effect it is a strong operatic rendition of this famous story of the Bible. There will be two choruses, one representing the Hebrews or the household of Jacob the patriarch, and the other the chorus of the Egyptian court of Pharaoh.

The music of this work is of a high order both for choruses and soloists and makes a fitting background for the various scenes that tell the story of Joseph's rise from bondage to the rulership of Egypt. Mr. Howes, the director, has made a fine reputation all over California as a skillful and successful director of works of this nature. He has the assistance in Glendale of an unusually large number of singers with fine voices and talent and a brilliant success is assured.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

"Owen," called Mr. Marks. "Owen, where's Owen?" "Here I am," came the chorus as three big fellows tried to step into the one small spotlight. Owen Dibbern has the part of Mr. Farrell, a reporter; Owen Emery, Mr. McClaren, the governor's secretary, and Owen Rhodes (who by the way is the author) is the governor in the new alumni play which is to be given May 11 and 12 at the Palace-Grand theater.

BOUQUETS FOR GARDEN SOCIETY

The following letter from the city trustees has been received by the president of the Glendale Garden society.

Glendale Garden Society, Mrs. Nanno Woods, president.

Dear Mrs. Woods—At the last regular meeting of the city trustees a resolution was adopted extending the thanks of the trustees as representing the City of Glendale to the officers and members of the Glendale Garden society for the very successful Flower Show which was held in Glendale last week by your association.

The people generally in our city agree that it was in more than one way the most successful thing in the way of a public entertainment that we have ever had and the hope is generally expressed that it may be many times repeated in the future, growing in beauty and completeness with every successive year. To the few of you who bore the burden of the work the trustees wish to express their thanks and hearty appreciation.

Very truly yours, SHERER, City Clerk.

WANTS GRANDSTAND REMOVED

To the Editor of the Glendale Evening News:

In Thursday evening's News attention was called to the unsightly weeds on the lots north of the Pacific avenue school grounds.

To the residents in that section the unsightliness of the weeds is as nothing compared with the unsightliness of the mammoth grandstand which looms a most conspicuous, inartistic and useless monstrosity on the grounds of the Pacific avenue school.

By all means have the weeds and also the grandstand removed as speedily as possible and you will have the eternal gratitude of West Glendale property owners and residents.

The nature of expenditures in each locality, whether it shall be conservation, channel work or rights of way, must necessarily be determined by the particular needs of each locality.

The apportionment is on a basis of each locality specified carrying its proportionate part of all incidental expenses.

There has been placed by the county librarian from one to three copies of the report of the engineers of flood control in all branch libraries. It is desired that the readers of the county libraries, which number more than 100, should read this report, for it represents an outlay of approximately $100,000 for field work and engineering services by the county, and $2000 for the printing of 2000 copies of the flood control reports.

It is often the case that large appropriations for the study and compilation of this kind, and when in report or book form it is scarcely again perused by the public; and in the case of this report, I would be grateful for everyone in Los Angeles county, particularly so, as there is a difference between the engineers upon some of the vital points, there is in this book a majority and a minority report.

J. W. REAGAN, County Engineer.

CAR STOLEN AND STRIPPED

A Buick car in good condition but with three tires and rims stripped off was found standing at the corner of Fifth and Adams Thursday night. The car, it was discovered, belonged to Frank D. Ormiston of Hollywood, who stated that it had been taken from his garage by some organized gang of thieves that is in the habit of stripping cars of rims and tires and afterward selling the stolen articles. The only clue to the identity of the thieves was an advertising watch fob, issued by the "Deep Spring Whiskey company." It is supposed that the gang brought the car to Glendale, accompanied by another car in which they took away the rims and tires after having removed them from the Buick. Los Angeles detectives are working on the case as well as the local force.

A MISUNDERSTANDING

Senator John Sharp Williams was talking about the Mexican situation. "There is such a thing," he said, "as taking offense where none is intended. We mustn't make that mistake. No, we mustn't be like Cooper Smith." "Cooper Smith visited a shoe store to buy a pair of shoes. He found a pair that suited him and was about to try on the right one when the clerk took it from his hand and deftly sprinkled its inside with French chalk so that it would slip on easily over the sock.

"Cooper Smith breathed hard and put on his own shoe again.

"Good-day to you, young feller," he said, rising. "If I can't try on a pair of shoes without havin' chloride of lime sprinkled in 'em beforehand, I'll take my trade elsewhere."

Sunday Services at the Churches

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"The Present War in Light of Prophecy," sermon topic Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. W. E. Blackstone, a world-renowned writer and lecturer, who spoke here a year ago, will discuss this subject. He always has a large hearing.

"Flying Off the Handle" is the pastor's subject for the evening service, this being the first in a series of popular Sunday evening addresses on the general theme, "Respectable Sins."

Sunday school at 9:40. Junior Endeavor at 3 p. m. C. E. meeting at 6:15.
Bible study campaign continues, with classes on Monday and Thursday evenings, and Wednesday afternoons. Visitors always welcome.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Lovers of good music will want to attend the First Methodist church Sunday evening. The choir and orchestra will repeat the cantata, "Death and Life." These organizations, under the able leadership of Mrs. Cammack and Miss Dorothy Lee, are doing excellent work.

The pastor will give the second sermon of the series on "The Home." The subject will be "The Father—the Daddy Problem." A special invitation is given to men to attend this service. Get a hunch on men.

At the morning hour of worship the pastor will preach on "Jealousy as a Virtue." Special numbers by the choir: "O Jesus Thou Art Standing" and "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us."

Bible school 9:40 a. m.
Class meeting at 12:15.
Epworth league at 6:30 p. m.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

The Lutheran church of this city stands for the development of true piety and godliness. Those who are weary and heavy laden with their sins and worries will find the help they need. They will find sympathy and fellowship from willing hearts and hands to help them. They will find this denomination, the "mother of protestantism," a true gate to heaven and a place where the gospel is preached. The pastor this coming Sunday morning will preach on the subject, "After Easter What?" Easter being the floodtide and wave of religious enthusiasm, what will my personal religious life be and how will it count after? The subject in the evening will be "How to Live a Strong Religious Life." The Easter music will be repeated at that service. All are welcome.

TROPICO PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Tropico Presbyterian church is planning for a very pleasant evening next Sabbath, April 30, when the Rev. O. P. Ryder, who has been supplying the pulpit and doing the work of pastor for over a year, will be installed as pastor of the church. Rev. E. L. B. McClellan, moderator of the Los Angeles Presbytery, will preside and give the charge to the people. Rev. A. K. Baird will give the charge to the pastor and Rev. W. S. Young, D. D., stated clerk of the Synod of California, will preach the sermon. Rev. F. Field of Glendale will offer the installation prayer. Mr. and Mrs. Ryder have endeared themselves to the hearts of the people of the community and the church and Sabbath school have grown since they came to Tropico. A cordial invitation is extended to the members of the congregation and their friends to be present at this service.

Last Sabbath being Easter, a special Easter program was given in Sabbath school and at the church service special music was beautifully rendered by the large choir, which was enjoyed by the large audience, which taxed the seating capacity of the church, chairs having to be placed in the aisles. An impressive feature of this service was the installation by the pastor of the Sabbath school officers and teachers, numbering over 20. The Easter story was told by the pastor in a manner so simple that the many young children could understand, while the more advanced in years received the helpful thoughts.

CASA VERDUGO CHURCH

7:30 p. m. Dr. Willisford takes for sermon topic, "A Man in a Hole and How He Gets Out."

Not a little of the splendid Easter music will be repeated.

The Sunday school assemblies at 9:45 a. m. The intermediate C. E. meets at 5:45 p. m. and the Senior C. E. meets at 6:30 p. m.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A stereopticon lecture will be given Sunday evening at 7:45. Mr. McCall, one of our missionaries who with his family has just returned from Japan, will show over fifty views that he has taken and that we have never seen. Mr. McCall is a delightful character whom you will not only be pleased to hear but to meet. He has a great message. Do not miss it.

The morning sermon by the pastor will be: "God's Promises." Special music at both services. Bible school at 9:30. Christian Endeavor at 6:30.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. A. J. Frost, D. D., will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist church both morning and evening. Many will remember Dr. Frost as one of "the big three" Baptist preachers of the Pacific coast in an early day. He always has a message with a punch in it. Don't fail to hear him.

WEST GLENDALE METHODIST CHURCH

PRACTICE DEBATE

Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock occurred the practice triangular debate between pupils of the Santa Ana, Glendale and Lincoln High schools, the object of the contest being to prepare students for the league debates of next year. Each school debated the affirmative at home and sent a negative team to the other school. Glendale's negative team went to Santa Ana, Santa Ana's negative team went to Lincoln in Los Angeles and Lincoln's negative team came to Glendale.

The Glendale students who debated were all young men in the sophomore class and all those with whom they debated were junior students. The question was "Resolved, that congress should pass a bill providing for the independence of the Philippines within four years." Each school lost the debate in the home school—that is, the affirmative was defeated in every case. At Santa Ana Glendale won the decision of three judges and at Glendale one judge making a total of four. Lincoln won two judges at Glendale and one at home, making a total of three and Santa Ana won two only at Lincoln. Considering the total number of judges Glendale came out first. From the fact that the representatives of the other schools were a year ahead of the Glendale boys in their school work, Glendale is to be congratulated on the excellent showing made. Prof. Root, instructor in debating in Glendale Union high school, accompanied the negative team, Herbert Scheuner of La Crescenta and Marion Lehman of Glendale, to Santa Ana, where they did honor to the home school. Harlan Durand of La Canada and Thomas C. White of Eagle Rock represented the Glendale school at home. All four boys worked hard and made a good showing and received many compliments from the judges and others.

There are these things to be said of the "Bordwell to Chapman" delegation—the last twenty-six.

They were not selected in any "star chamber" proceedings and their "nomination" announced by the press before their nominating convention had acted.

They did not procure their place on the ballot or any other advantage by means of any impossible certification by any county clerk or other person whomsoever.

They are not now appealing to the voters to disregard their registration as Progressives or Democrats or what not and masquerade at the primaries as Republicans for the purpose of defeating candidates whose standing as Republicans, loyal Californians and good citizens cannot be questioned.

They are not in the "no preference" column with any mental reservations whatsoever—they have no preference.

SO

IF YOU BELIEVE IN

No Slate.

No Trickery.

No False Colors and

No Preference

For the Republican delegation at Chicago you will vote for

The last twenty-six names in the no-preference column "Bordwell to Chapman"

And the last shall be first next Tuesday.
